

Disclaimer

Whilst Nexus tries hard to ensure that the website is functioning correctly and is as accurate as possible, this will not always be achievable and therefore the following disclaimer applies.

1. The website is provided "as is" without any representation or endorsement made and without warranty of any kind whether express or implied, including but not limited to the implied warranties of satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose, compatibility, non-infringement, accuracy and security. Nexus does not guarantee or represent that the content and/or facilities available or accessible via the website will always be accurate, complete or current or that access to the website will be uninterrupted.
2. Nexus expressly disclaims all liability for any direct, indirect or consequential loss or damage occasioned from the use or inability to use the website, whether directly or indirectly resulting from inaccuracies, defects, viruses, errors - whether typographical or otherwise, omissions, out-of-date information or otherwise.
3. Accessing the website and the downloading of material from it is done entirely at the user's own risk. The user, and not Nexus, will be entirely responsible for any resulting damage to software or computer systems and/or any resulting loss of data even if Nexus has been advised of the possibility of such damage.

Links

1. The website may contain links to other web sites over which Nexus has no control. Such links are supplied solely for the convenience of users. Nexus is not responsible, nor can it be held responsible, for the contents or reliability of the linked websites and does not necessarily endorse the views expressed within them or the organisation or persons providing them in any way. Nexus does not guarantee that these links will work all of the time and it has no control over the availability of the linked pages.
2. Providers of other websites may place text-based links to pages on this website without seeking Nexus' prior permission. However such links must not open Nexus website pages into frames within another website. Pages from the Nexus websites must be loaded into the user's entire browser window. The use of the Nexus logo or the logo's of any associated or subsidiary organisations must not be used for promotional or linking purposes unless prior approval in writing has been given. Please contact the Nexus marketing team on Tel 0191 203 3333 for further details on obtaining such approval.

Jurisdiction

These Terms will be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over disputes between a user and Nexus arising out of the access or use of this website. Omission by Nexus to exercise any right under these Terms will not constitute a waiver of such right unless expressly stated by Nexus in writing.

Statutory Rights

Nothing in this disclaimer affects your statutory rights as a consumer, including:

1. Our duty to provide river trips to you with reasonable care and skill, or;
2. Our responsibility to provide river trips to you that match anything we say or write to you (or is said or written on our behalf) about Nexus or about the river trip. We'll be responsible if you take what is said or written into account when deciding to buy a river trip ticket in the first place or when making any decision about the river trip after you've bought the ticket. Any qualification we made at the time is relevant here, as is any change to what was originally said or written that's expressly agreed between us at any time after that.
