

Covid-19 Weekly Survey

What you've told us

8 weeks

The survey has been running since early April

Strong support for face coverings, hand sanitiser and social distancing on public transport

Majority of respondents think public transport providers have responded well

On average, passengers expect to return to Metro in late summer

What we're doing

Normal daytime timetable restored on  to increase capacity on the network

Social distancing being maintained on board buses

Introduced new signage & guidance and hand sanitiser at key locations

Results published online at nexus.org.uk/insight

Metro trains treated with new anti-microbial sanitiser which protects surfaces for up to 30 days

More detailed research with business and people in June/July